

Design & Develop Learning programmes

Course outcome

This workshop will assist Practitioners, in design and development of learning programmes, to meet defined learning needs, in the context of outcomes-based education, training & development.

Learning outcomes

- Drafting learning outcomes for the programme.
- Conducting analysis for learning design.
- Designing the learning programme.
- Drafting a brief for the development of the learning programme.
- Evaluating learning design.
- Plan and prepare for development.
- Develop learning materials.
- Develop learning facilitation guidelines.
- Piloting and evaluation the development.

Aligned to unit standard

Unit Standard: 123394 [10 credits] – NQF level 5
Unit Standard: 123401 [15 credits] – NQF level 6

Target audience

- Assessors
- Learning Programme designers/developers.
- Individuals who as part of a qualification need to complete this unit standard.

Course duration

4 days

Training medium/media

Interactive workshop, including a Learner Workbook supported by an Assessment Pack.

The assessment pack includes;

Formative and Summative assessments and Workplace assignments.

Omni Learning

High Performance Learning

Entry requirements

It is assumed learners are already competent in general analysis and design techniques, and have a working knowledge of outcomes-based education and training.

It is also assumed that learners are able to communicate in writing at an NQF level 4.